

The Republican Agenda

A newsletter for people that think

Another Republican Lifestyle Felon

WAR = $$$

1.0

AFGHANISTAN

Hamid Karzai, the US puppet in Afghanistan, formerly served as a consultant to US oil company Unocal. He created plans for a natural gas pipeline in Afghanistan. War on terror, sure.

1.1

NUKULAR WEAPONS

A key component of the Republican deception that led us into the illegal war in Iraq was the invented story of Saddam having Nukular[sic] Weapons

2.0

BUCKS ROLLING IN

American corporations are making record profits, some earning as much as $500 for each dead Iraqi family. That's Family Values!

2.1

REPUBLICAN LIFESTYLE

Practitioners of the Republican Lifestyle have seen a big increase in personal income since the US invaded Iraq, combine this with reduced taxes for Republican millionaires, and you can see the advantages of the Republican Lifestyle

The people of the USA are beginning to fight back against the scheming warlords of the Republican Agenda who conspired illegally to deceive us into an unjust war. When Joseph Wilson made public statements refuting the warmongers claims that Saddam had nukular[sic] weapons, the gangsters in the White House fought back by exposing his wife's CIA role. It was intended as a warning to anyone else that might try to thwart their conspiracy by telling the truth.

Joseph Wilson was perfectly well aware that the so called evidence that Saddam had a nukular[sic] weapons program was fabricated by those plotting a Big Lie approach to big war profits. Joseph Wilson had the moral integrity to speak out against the conspirators who were actively and covertly engaged in deceiving the American people. And Vice President Halliburton was enraged by this man who dared to speak the truth and threaten the central jewel of their elaborate deception.

What Joseph Wilson opposed was a deception intended to kill thousands of people for profit, a deception that would destroy the good will of the peace loving nations of the world toward America. A deception that would cause untold grief and agony for thousands of American and Iraqi families. A deception that would provide enormous profits for practitioners of the Republican Lifestyle. Vice President Halliburton had no intention of letting anything as inconvenient as facts interfere with their carefully planned conspiracy. And so it was that a man given over completely to evil and avarice ordered his aide to expose the wife of Joseph Wilson. It was revenge against Wilson, and a well understood warning to everyone inside the Belt. It made it clear that Vice President Halliburton was a vicious bastard that would stop at nothing in his efforts to promote the Republican Agenda.

Nobody familiar with the situation has any doubt that it was Vice President Halliburton himself who ordered the attack on Valerie Plame. He and Our Glorious Christian Leader were intent on exploiting 9/11 and using it to promote their avaricious plans to rape Iraq and make billions of dollars for war profiteers. They knew that their clever invention of a nukular[sic] threat would get lots of headlines in the heartland. They do not care that they have murdered 100,000 innocent Iraqis, why should they care about committing a mere national security felony?

The Republican Lifestyle does not care about the sort of ordinary people that die in a war. You don't hear about any Republicans giving up their gravy train pork barrel jobs in Washington to go fight in Iraq, and you never will. But they are perfectly content to send ordinary people to die for their profits. That's the core of the Republican Lifestyle, and it's why they were so vicious in this case that threatened their plan for war profits.

The fact of the matter is that the bucks are still rolling in. Vice President Halliburton is still getting his one million dollars every year from the company of the same name, and US soldiers keep dying in Iraq for nothing more than a pack of vicious lies and continued record profits for Halliburton.

Lewis "Scooter" Libby is now in a race with the Hammer to be the first high ranking practitioner of the Republican Lifestyle to start sharing a cell with Bubba. Both are felons, both struggled deliberately to break the law and work against the interests of the people, and both reveal the disrespect for law and common decency that is a core principle of the Republican Agenda.

Let's hope the courts are able to deliver appropriate verdicts in the interests of the American people.

Bad Times

These are bad times for participants in the Republican Lifestyle, the Hammer has fallen, and soon another hammer may fall, possibly striking the evil mastermind of the Bush war conspiracy. Will Karl Rove go to jail? Will Vice President Halliburton be indicted? And how about that Jeebus-freak friend of Our Leader withdrawing her name as a Supreme!

Over 2,000 US soldiers have now died in Iraq, many estimate we have killed over 100,000 citizens of Iraq, none of whom were hiding nukular weapons. The public has turned on our Warmonger in Chief, Karl Rove may be arrested at any minute, and the VP is long overdue for another heart attack.

It's almost hard to guess what misfortune will be the next for those who conspired to lie to and propagandize America into an illegal war based on a pack of lies. Perhaps even Our Glorious Christian Leader himself could be called on to account for his crimes.

Of course the Republican Lifestyle still goes on. Halliburton continues to make huge profits on the dead bodies of American youth and the people of Afghanistan and Iraq.

Vice President Halliburton has made it clear that, as far as he is concerned, the torture never stops.

And in Massachusetts, where gay marriage is legal, the bodies of thousands of innocent Fundamentalists line the streets, victims of gay marriage. Oh, wait, actually not a single Fundamentalist Christian has suffered in any way as a result of gay marriage, but that does not stop the Republican Lifestyle lies and hatred.

But even the important work of protecting America from the threat of gay marriage does not seem to be enough to conceal the criminal intent of the Republican Agenda this week. The dirty laundry of the vicious schemers and their underhanded plots to punish those who tell the truth are now exposed for all to see.

Will America wake up from its xenophobic slumber? Will the Republican Lifestyle be exposed for what it really is? And will the criminals at the top of the system get to live in a cell with Bubba? We can only hope.

Torture Time

Vice President Halliburton wants CIA operatives to continue torturing prisoners despite the fact that an overwhelming majority in the US Senate voted to make illegal torture be illegal again like it was before Bush. Vice President Halliburton wants torture to be legal if it is “conducted abroad”, in other words, everything stays the same and we keep torturing people to death.

The US Senate said they wanted torture to be against the law, illegal, and something we do not do. But the number one law enforcer in the USA, the US Attorney General Alberto “Torture Time” Gonzales, is the one who said it was legal if Our Glorious Christian Leader says so.

The Vice President of the United States of America, who receives one million dollars a year from Halliburton as “retirement pay”, wants us to be able to torture prisoners if the CIA does it, or if it is done outside the US. This is exactly what the current situation is. We have special torture concentration camps in places like Cuba, which is outside the US. And we torture people there, which is what 90 out of 100 US Senators said we should stop doing. But Vice President Halliburton does not want the torture to stop. He’s a Christian, you know.

The proposal, which two sources said Vice President Halliburton handed Thursday to Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz., in the company of CIA Director Porter Goss, states that the measure barring inhumane treatment shall not apply to counterterrorism operations conducted abroad or to operations conducted by “an element of the United States government” other than the Defense Department.

Burnt Bodies

Donald “Death Star” Rumsfeld has stated his opinion that the claims that US soldiers desecrated the bodies of persons they had killed cause harm to the United States. The implication seems to be that the claims should no longer be made.

Notable in the response of “Death Star” Rumsfeld was the absence of any concerns about whether US forces should actually be doing such things. The only apparent concern that “Death Star” Rumsfeld has is the bad effect of the publicity on the image of the USA.

As the leader of an organization that goes to foreign countries for the purpose of killing the people that live there, perhaps it is to be expected that the response to the incident from Donald “Death Star” Rumsfeld would seem to be devoid of any concerns about what is right or wrong. The “Death Star” seems only to resent the fact that the reporters covering this story have exposed the actions of US Freedom Fighters© in Afghanistan.

The claim has been made that a special Psych Ops team of US forces was using the body desecration maneuver in order to be certain as many followers of the Muslim faith as possible are converted to an anti-US world view. Only very intelligent soldiers make it into the Psych Ops operations, ones that are smart enough to make as many local citizens as possible hate and utterly despise America. This is part of the Republican Agenda to reduce terrorism.

A problem not explicitly mentioned by Donald “Death Star” Rumsfeld is that there is no readily apparent way that any US defense contractors can make any profit in this whole body desecration situation, except perhaps by selling special fuels to the US armed forces which they can use as an accelerant when they are desecrating the bodies of people that they have killed in their own country.

We need to investigate this incident to determine if private contractors might be able to save money for the Pentagon by performing the body desecration tasks, thus freeing our forces to kill more people who have been caught living in their own country.

Sometimes these Arab people seem to act as if they think that our soldiers are a bunch of foreign invaders or something. It almost seems as if they object to US forces coming to their country, killing their people and then setting their dead bodies on fire.

It must be another Liberal Media plot to interfere with the Republican Agenda. Otherwise why would anyone televise US soldiers doing something unpopular with the local citizens. Let's all blame the liberals.

Freedom Fighters© is a registered trademark of the Republican Party.

Republican Mayor

All across the country, practitioners of the Republican Lifestyle are being forced to defend themselves in courts against the will of the people. Spokane Washington Mayor James West has a long history of slandering gay people, and he also likes to have sex with young men. The people of Spokane have risen up against the Republican Lifestyle, and Mayor West is on the ropes. The bucks just aren't rolling in like they used to.

What could possibly be a better illustration of the deep hypocrisy that lies at the root of the Republican Lifestyle then this two faced politician that rose to power by bad-mouthing people like himself. Even Our Glorious Christian Leader seems sincere when compared to this man, the Ultimate Republican. His world-class duplicity could become the new dictionary definition of Republican.

The people of Spokane have successfully started a recall campaign. Their gay anti-gay mayor estimates that he will need to raise $150,000 to spread enough Republican Style FUD to mask over his well earned bad reputation. But who will give money to this uber-cretin? He is hardly the sweetheart of the gay community, with his long history of sponsoring and proposing anti-gay legislation during his time in the Washington state government. The man is clearly deeply ill at ease with himself, and obviously with good cause. And which practitioner of the Republican Lifestyle is going to choose to support this dumbass who has exposed the incredibly self serving deceit that lies at the heart of the Republican Agenda.

The FBI has an ongoing investigation too. It has been suggested that he was offering city jobs to attractive young gay men if they would grace his bedroom. Some think this is illegal, even for a practitioner of the Republican Lifestyle.

Clearly he is between a rock and a hard place. It seems to be the right place for him.

The Hammer

Hardened criminal and noted proponent of the Republican Lifestyle Tom DeLay is a wanted man. The trash-talking thief who stole from the poor to give to the rich has been charged with the felony crime of money laundering. He sold out the interests of the people of Texas in order to pander to Republican Lifestyle corporate interests, while all the time mumbling pious Jeebus bullshit about the dangers of gay marriage. A liar, a thief, a hypocrite and a criminal. That's the leadership of the Republican Party in action.

They pretend to be all pious and Jeebusish in order to fool the Jeebus crowd into supporting them. It seems they do a very good job of fooling the fools. But once a proponent of the Republican Lifestyle gets into office all that they focus on is selling out the average citizen to their corporate sponsors. This little piggy could not get enough from the regular, established congressional feeding tray. He had to go over the line and invent his own Republican Agenda felony schemes.

Well Mister DeLay, if you can't do the time, don't do the crime.

Sky Daddy

Many Americans who are afflicted with religious beliefs are claiming that their Imaginary Bearded Sky Daddy sent hurricane Katrina to punish the evil sinners in New Orleans. But would an all powerful, all knowing deity have missed the French Quarter and ended up just punishing poor black people?

Maybe this fictional deity is a member of the Republican Party, and has chosen to adopt the Republican Lifestyle as a lifestyle choice. If there is one thing that is certain and clear in all of this theorizing, it is that Republicans do not like poor people. Maybe this all powerful imaginary deity wanted to punish the poor black people of New Orleans for being poor.

Maybe the Super-Duper Cloud Guy was upset when his representative in America was unable to steal the Social Security savings of the poor people for his Republican Lifestyle Wall Street Agenda?

Maybe this non-existent deity will create economic conditions that are so harsh for the poor people that they will be forced to enlist in the US Armed Forces so they can kill foreigners in support of the Republican Agenda. After all, the Republican Lifestyle is perfectly consistent with the practice of invading a foreign country and killing the foreigners that live there all based on a pack of lies.

So perhaps hurricane Katrina really did not miss the French Quarter accidentally, maybe the Imaginary Bearded Sky Daddy really wanted to punish the poor black people in New Orleans as a way of promoting the Republican Agenda.

It's so hard to be sure when the Bearded Sky Daddy that you are imagining doesn't really exist. Just about any theory could be as good as any other. Billy Graham's son Franklin seems to think that Bearded Guy wanted to get the gay people, but it seems as though his all-powerful hero couldn't quite steer the flood waters all the way to the French Quarter. It's a shame when an all powerful deity can't get the job done right.

Impeach Our Leader

A new poll released by Zogby says that 42% of Americans they surveyed would like to see Our Glorious Christian Leader impeached if he is found to have lied about his (Mobil/Exxon) reasons for invading (oil) Iraq. What's up with the 58% who think it is OK to kill 100,000 people based on a pack of lies?

The Zogby poll indicates that 42 percent of voters say that "if it is found that President Bush did not tell the truth about his reasons for going to war with Iraq, Congress should hold him accountable through impeachment."

That is a stunningly high number when you consider that only 41 percent of the American public supported Congress proceeding with impeachment hearings against President Clinton in late September 1998. This was after President Clinton's grand jury testimony was made public and just before the House Judiciary Committee approved a resolution recommending an impeachment inquiry.

Sure, the Congress is in the pockets of the same corporations that George is working for, but the Emperor's New Clothes effect is starting to wear off.

Child Molester

Oregon authorities have learned that the anti-gay leader of the local Christian Coalition was secretly practicing the Republican Lifestyle by molesting 3 female family members when they were children. Multnomah County District Attorney Michael Schrunk said officials are investigating the complaints against Lou Beres, the longtime chairman of the Coalition.

It seems he was living the Republican Lifestyle, spreading hatred against gay people to draw attention away from his depraved soul. Now who's a pervert, Jeebus boy?

It would be nice to have a few years off from these hypocritical Republican bastards that heap condemnation on gay people while they do what they themselves claim is wrong.

Just one state north of this hypocrite pretending to be a Christian we find Spokane Washington Mayor James West, a vicious campaigner against gay people, pretending to love Jeebus, who was using his office as Mayor to lure young men into bed with promises of city jobs.

We're not suggesting it is wrong for Mayor West to share his bed with any adult who wishes to join him. It is the hypocritical public condemnation of gay people while he is doing the very things he condemns, that is our grounds for disagreeing with the Republican Lifestyle.

The lesson that followers of the Republican Lifestyle seem desperate to avoid learning is that if a Republican thinks something is wrong that Republican is free to avoid doing the things they do not like.

This business of scapegoating gays and lesbians to conceal one's own depravity is starting to get a bit old.

Message From God

Finally we have an answer to the oft-asked question, "Does Jaheezus Talk to Bush?", apparently the answer is yes, according to Our Glorious Christian Leader. The BBC has the story, with quotes from Our Glorious Christian Leader, and a denial from Scott "closet case" McClellan.

The comments were attributed to Mr Bush by the Palestinian negotiator Nabil Shaath in the upcoming TV series Elusive Peace: Israel and the Arabs. See the BBC story.

Mr Shaath said that in a 2003 meeting with Mr Bush, the US president said he was "driven with a mission from God".

"President Bush said to all of us: 'I'm driven with a mission from God. God would tell me, George, go and fight those terrorists in Afghanistan. And I did, and then God would tell me, George, go and end the tyranny in Iraq... And I did.

"And now, again, I feel God's words coming to me, Go get the Palestinians their state and get the Israelis their security, and get peace in the Middle East. And by God I'm gonna do it."

This is the kind of thing that happens when millions of nut jobs vote for a nut job so he can do stupid and clearly evil things in the name of some imaginary, all-powerful, deity that whispers plans for killing people in his ears.

Stupid people electing a stupid person leads to stupid situations, and in this case, the death of about 100,000 Iraqi people who were not dictators and were not hiding any fictitious weapons at all.

Republican Agenda

That's all we have for this issue of The Republican Agenda.

We hope to bring you another episode soon, perhaps with news about jail terms and impeachment proceedings.

In the meantime, we suggest that you Just Say No to warmongering homophobic Jeebus freak war profiteers.